GOLF CLUB

ST ANNA GOLF CLUB

The St. Anne's Golf Club designed by the great architect, Robert Von Hagge, can be described as "18 holes from the sea."

The path of striking beauty with large technical greens, suitable for international competitions, enhances the game thanks to the unspoiled nature of the surrounding environment.

RAPALLO GOLF CLUB

Located near the city center, Rapallo Golf Club is certainly one of the most beautiful locations in the Gulf of Tigullio. This is a challenging course full of natural obstacles: surrounded by a lush forest of cedars and cypresses and plums. Because of the mild weather the course is accessible during the winter with ideal turf

GAVI GOLF CLUB

The Golf Course Colline del Gavi is an ideal place for those who believe in the value of leisure: surrounded by vineyards in a land famous for its wine that is wedged between Piemonte and Liguria.

110 acres of open space, meadows, woods, trails, everything to meet the eyes. The most interesting fact about this course is that men added very little to it, it was not "invented", it was always there. The technically challenging terrain follows the natural landscape taking advantage of the gentle ups and down of land, between forests, hills, ponds and creeks.

There are two golf course available:

The 18-hole championship course, 6,390 meters long., par 73 (136 slope rating, course rating 73.2);

The 9-hole executive course, 1,895 meters long, par 31 (slope rating 111, course rating 61,3).

SERRAVALLE GOLF CLUB

The Serravalle Golf Club next to "Tenuta La Bollina" once the summer residence of the Marquis of Genoa Figari is located only 1 km away from the famous Serravalle Designer Outlet. The course, a highly technical par 72 immersed in the Valle Scrivia lush and surrounded by the vineyards of Gavi, the prince of the Piemonte's whites.

It is the ideal starting point for numerous cultural and gastronomic possibilities as well as for those who love shopping.

The course, designed by Fulvio Bani and Franco Ziliani, opened in the spring of 2006. The course develops among the 12 hills of Serravalle, immersed in the vineyards of Gavi, the woods and the ponds of the magnificent estate.

Course: 18 holes, length. 5,926 meter, Par 72
